

Dear Parents and Students,

Thank you for your interest in our programme. Below are the terms for our fees collection, make-up lesson arrangement, and class schedule for the different subjects and level for your reference.

1. Bi-monthly fees collection

Tuition fees will be collected on a bi-monthly basis and it will be prorated according to the number of lessons and collected at the beginning of every odd-numbered month. For instance, the fees for January & February 2021 (7 lessons due to CNY) will be collected on the first week of January; fees for March & April will be collected on the first week of March. Please refer to the lesson schedule below for the respective rate of each subject and level.

* Registration fee is a one-time $50 for new sign-up. No additional security deposit or GST is required.

2. On-site lessons

In the event that the student is unable to attend a physical lesson, he/she should inform the tutor as early as possible, and the following arrangements can be made:

- a) Attend a physical make-up lesson in the same week at any of the centre's locations at Bishan or Bukit Timah (subject to availability of seating space).
- b) Attend the online (live) lessons at the available timing(s).
- c) Request for the lesson recording of the week to catch up on the content at student's free time.

Fees will not be carried forward for offsetting in the next payment cycle unless lesson recordings are not available.

3. Online lessons

For students attending online lessons, the following arrangements will be made:

- a) Material for the classes, such as notes and exercises, will be mailed to your home address at the beginning of every month.
- b) In the event that the student is unable to attend the scheduled online lesson, he/she may attend another online session (if available) or request for the lesson recording of the week to catch up on the content at student's free time.
- c) Online students may switch to on-site lessons subsequently, subject to space availability in the classroom.
